

Two-Sentence Stories

There are 10 two-sentence stories in the following grid. Start with a sentence under column A, then look for the next one under column B, and finally find a suitable ending under C:

A	B	C
1. I never go to...	...why I was breathing...	...I live alone.
2. The grinning face stared at me...	...for the light switch, but...	...her mom pulled her into her room and said "I heard that too."
3. Lying in bed that night she asked....	...of me sleeping...	...until I heard it come from the mirror again.
4. I woke up to hear knocking on glass...	...in bubble wrap from the main room...	...waking up.
5. There was a picture in my phone...	...tonight there is a face in the cellar staring...	...another hand is already there.
6. Working the night shift along...	...and started to head down as she got to the stairs,so heavily I wasn't.
7. They delivered the mannequins...sleep I keep...	...at the security camera.
8. You get home, tired after a long day's work you reach...	...I thought it was the window at first...	...one of us walked out.
9. A girl heard her mom yell her name from downstairs, so she got up...	...and looked at myself in the mirror only...	...I live on the 14th floor.
10. I walked into the bathroom one night...	...from the darkness beyond my bedroom window...	...I begin to hear popping.

The full stop between the two sentences has been omitted. Where should it go?